

Title	Speakers	Description
CON-EXL1 Lessons Learned from a Successful ACO Wednesday, June 20 9-10 a.m.	Paige Younkin, President & Chief Executive Officer, AnewCare Collaborative David Sensibaugh, President & Chief Executive Officer, Integrated Solutions Health Network	AnewCare Collaborative, Mountain State Health Alliance's ACO, has participated in the Medicare Shared Savings Program (MSSP) since 2013 and has achieved shared savings all four years of their participation, totaling more than $20 million. TSpeakers will share best practices for assuring effective transitions of care across the continuum, expanding IP transitions to the OP setting, alignment of caregivers/providers and more.
CON-EXL2 Service Line Strategies for Success Wednesday, June 20 10:15-11:15 a.m.	Rocco Orlando, M.D., Senior Vice President & Chief Medical Officer, Hartford HealthCare Jim Hunter, M.D., Senior Vice President & Chief Medical Officer, Carolinas HealthCare System	A strong service line approach helps create organizational efficiencies for many healthcare systems. Hear from two medical leaders as they share their different service line successes and discuss how service line clinical councils drive performance, produce better outcomes and support growth, You'll also hear about a readmissions reduction approach that engages service line leaders and focuses on the full continuum of care.
CON-EXL3 Mergers and Acquisitions and Affiliations: Strategies for Success Wednesday, June 20 2:30-3:30 p.m.	Jay Fligstein, Senior Vice President, Acurity	The emerging healthcare landscape is transforming the way provider organizations approach mergers and acquisitions. This, along with the shift to value-based care, has created new strategic and operational challenges. This session will offer successful examples of how health systems have managed these challenges during the mergers and acquisitions process.
BKTH-EXL Flipping the M&A Switch: Innovative Integration Strategies Thursday, June 21 7-7:45 a.m.	James Mormann, Senior Vice President and Chief Information Officer, OSF HealthCare	Your merger or acquisition is a done deal. The papers are signed, press announcements have been made, the staff is aware and the merge date is set. As a leader, you are charged with crafting a smooth integration plan to assure that you maintain brand awareness, cost effectiveness and high-quality patient care across all entities. Hear about a successful approach for integration from a respected CIO whose organization has been named "most wired" six years in a row.
CON-EXL4 Value Improvement: Driving the New Normal Thursday, June 21 9-10 a.m.	Ken Turner, Vice President, Operational Effectiveness, University Hospitals Health System Jacqueline Sherry, Senior Operations Engineer, University Hospitals Health System	To underscore its position as a top-decile healthcare provider, University Hospitals (UH) created and implemented a comprehensive Value Improvement Program. Through a high-level operational and strategic review of clinical services at all acute facilities, non-clinical/corporate services and the physician enterprise, UH was able to identify key areas for improvement. Learn how this strategic approach moved the organization to a more effective new normal.
CON-EXL5 Accelerating High Reliability Transformation Thursday, June 21 10:15-11:15 a.m.	Marty Scott, M.D., Chief Transformation Officer, Hackensack Meridian Healthcare System	Implementing high reliability principles in an organization strengthens patient safety programs, reduces adverse events and related mortality and ultimately provides greater excellence in care delivery. Join this session to hear successful strategies for accelerating the high reliability transformation.
CON-EXL6 Safer Healthcare Through Transparency Thursday, June 21 2:30-3:30 p.m.	Doug Salvador, M.D., Chief Quality Officer, Baystate Health	The National Patient Safety Foundation's white paper entitled, "Shining a Light: Safer Healthcare through Transparency", identifies transparency as one of the key concepts in healthcare safety. Session attendees will learn how one academic medical center has systematically embraced transparency to improve patient safety across the board.